

PANSY WILL 700

Cobb Has Hit Successfully Against Every First Class Twirler of American League Except Chicago Speed Merchant; Joe Bush Easy for Georgian, Who Also Hits Cicotte and Johnson.

HICAGO, III., Sept. 12.—As most; sporting enthusiasis about the country are wondering where the White Sox stand on various minor cems to have a better than even seems to have a better than even whance of winning a pennant, a few acattering remarks might not go amiss.

Hany believe it will be a hattle of southpaws. They overlook Eest Faber, a right hander. They figure that the beft handed hatters of the New York club will drive Rowland's right handers to cover, among tham Faber. It might be well to go back over Faber's record, As a standard we take Ty Cobb—certainly as good a southpaw hitter as the game hand developed.

Cobb, for a number of seasons, has had more trouble hitting against Faber than any other pitcher in the business—right or outhpaw sitter as the game has decloped.

Cobb, for a number of sensons,
has had more trouble hifting against Faber than any other pitcher in the hustless—right or left handed. It was Faber who slopped Tyrus when he was on bits recent high hatting streak in consecutive games.

Records compiled last year show hat, of all the twirlers Cobb ever atted against. Addie Joss, the late researed star, was his chief hoodon outs had slogged 223 against him.

few weeks has been a his aid to the fing drive.

Fans who attended a recent game in Philadelphia wondered what Jelinny Evers had done to warrant dismissal from the field. The true take has been learned from Pat Moran.

Empire Higher and gifteent opinion on many of the Pirate's pitches, and the latter was peeved. Evers came to hat in the sixth with the bases filled and two out. Johnny fried to cour in pass and the count was two halls and one strike when Jake offered a doubtful pitch. Johnny insisted it was a ball, but Higer called it a strike.

"How about that pitch, Jake, wann't it a hall?" shoulted the Quaker second baseman after flying out on the next one. "It certainly was," replind Jacobs.

world's series aspirants would be among the also rans, and they might be wallowing in last pixes. With them in the lineap the two para makers have the strongest combinations in the majora today.

Look at the lineap of the Giants for a vivid example. No less than ten men on McGraw's router were developed elswhere than New York. Several others were cut looks by McGraw and later called back, and though the scrappy pilot of the Peto fireous from the cold the reins at counders is a capable manager who knows how to develop players, and in the cold the reins at the world the responsible for the baseball talter that has won him the National league pennant.

ent that has won him the National league pennant.

Heinie Zimmerman, the best third buseman in the National league today, is a product of the Cubs. Herny Kauff, one of the heat fielders in the majors, graduated from the Federal league and got his training under Bill Phillips and other minor league managers.

Law McCarly, though he is of little use this year because of a broken legis, nevertheless, one of the best backwaps in the game, and Unele Willbert Robinson taught him how to be a great catcher. Bill Bariden got his big league training at Beston, and McGraw grabbed Bill from the out-
